Nostradamus said that Earth would be destroyed
on 1999.

Well, he didn't say to me.
To be precise, I read that he said so in a book.

Whether what he said will come true or not... time will tell.

If Earth really ends by then, there is nothing I can do.

Allowin' I would be very disappointed not being able to see 21st century.

Even if I was not meant to see.

Anyway, I gotta run...

I hate to be late.

Mysterious don't have to be grand in scale
or scorching like that.

Everyday events can be turned into weird mysteries. They just need a little push up by some.

What I am trying to say is ...

Ahhh, the books I read last night prove to be troublesome for me...

Earth destruction, the world's 7 mysteries...,
whatnot.

I have 5 years before 1999, so I can ditch that for now, but the world's 7 mysteries...

The books were interesting, nevertheless...

Still I have not seen or experienced the world's mysteries, so they were kind of meaningless to me.

Well

Mysteries are called mysteries for a reason, I guess.

I will go to school.

And they fall in love.

Watch where you are going !

I'm sorry.
Are you hurt...?

Such a pattern happen and seem to happen quite often that its expected outcome is ...

Yes... a pattern like this.

Wow, I saw something I could not explain logically.

Huh?

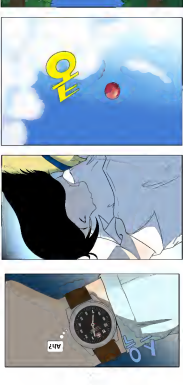
I can't be enough, didn't I ?

When I saw it...

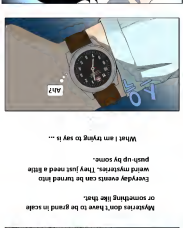
Yes, I was thinking that when ...

I don't think I am aloing too much.
Just a genuine mystery in front of my eyes ...

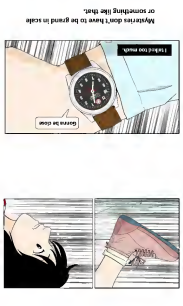
Fall.

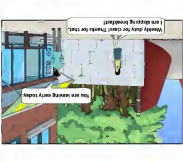


Time was ...



Year 1994, May





I was ... right there.

Time was moving very today.

Yesterday day for classi Thursday the tutor...
I am skipping homework!!

Kristal love gone
bad and torn !

You are a pawn in my school now ! Study and stop reading weird books !

Mother fuc

Mom isn't entirely wrong in what she said...

Korea's high school students don't really have time to read up on world's mysteries and whatnot truthfully...

Before noon !

Are very true. I am really late ! You are not late or anything
are you ?

And throughout running like mind
while blanking more for making me talk too much and so on ...

If above is not a mystery,
what else would be ?

Therefore, what I am going to do is ...

- Thanks for reading -

- The end -
